What is wilderness camping? – Drive out to the start of the campgrounds, see what hiking in the wilderness is like, and walk a mile or two of the lesser traveled Cushetunk Trail. (We'll meet at the South Parking Lot and drive to the trailhead)

Saturday, May 27 - The Woods aren't scary! - 10:00 a.m. 12:00 p.m.

PARKING FEE ONLY: ($10.00 in-state vehicle - $20.00 out-of-state vehicle) pre-registration recommended, please call the park office 908-236-6355 – Park in the South Parking Lot.

New to the woods? Start the season with a hike on the Cushetunk Trail. We will learn how to be safe and comfortable in the woods and do a bit of bushwhacking (off trail hiking). Kids will learn what to do to avoid getting lost, and what to do if lost.

Saturday, June 24 - The Wall - 10:00 a.m. to noon.

PARKING FEE ONLY: ($10.00 in-state vehicle - $20.00 out-of-state vehicle) pre-registration recommended, please call the park office 908-236-6355 – Park in the South Parking Lot

Poet Robert Frost didn't like walls and, yet, we build them. Get a look at the more remote section of the Cushetunk Trail and wonder who it was who built those walls.

(We'll meet at the South Parking Lot and drive a few miles to our trailhead)

Saturday, July 15 - Raspberry Ramble - 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
